

NEWS FROM DALLAS

Mr. Nathan Wilner of Breckenridge spent the holiday festivities with his family on Bryan street.

Mr. and Mrs. U. M. Cerf of Fort Worth spent last Sunday in Maypearl with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Levy.

Mr. Leon Lawrence of San Antonio spent the week end with his folks on McMillan street and then enroute to Breckenridge on business.

Mrs. U. M. Cerf of Fort Worth spent last week in Dallas with her folks on McMillan street.

Miss Isabelle Brin of San Antonio is going to remain in Dallas through the winter season to attend school and will be accompanied by Miss Francis Lawrence.

Mrs. Marie Lawrence has just returned from San Antonio after spending several weeks with her son, Mr. Leon Lawrence on Laurell Heights.

Mr. Harry Lawrence of Chicago was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence on Lindsley street, through the holiday festivities. Mr. Lawrence is attending school in Chicago and is taking up electric engineering.

Mrs. Sidney Brin and baby have returned from a three weeks' visit to Mrs. Brin's parents in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Blum of Buffalo, Texas, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Rosenthal.

Mrs. Marcus Levi entertained Friday afternoon with a five o'clock tea honoring Mrs. Nathan Blum of Buffalo, Texas.

Mrs. S. S. Mallinson entertained Thursday afternoon for her daughter, Reba, who is home from Goucher College for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Keller of Cleveland, Ohio, are in the city to attend the Lorch-Folz wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Weil and daughter Gertrude, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Rose to attend the Lorch-Folz wedding.

Miss Jane Krone of Dayton, Ohio, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. David Lefkowitz.

Miss Lillian York of Pittsburg, Pa., who has been spending the winter here with her sister, Mrs. S. Adler, has returned to her home.

Miss Ella Barshap of El Paso, Texas, is visiting Mrs. Nathan Wertheimer.

Mrs. Abe Jacobs of Wolf City is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Mittenthal.

Miss Leta Mae Sanger entertained Friday afternoon, her guests were the visitors, debutantes and young matrons. Bridge and Five Hundred was the amusement, luncheon was served at 5 o'clock.

Miss Henrietta Block left Sunday afternoon for Dayton, Ohio to visit her sister, Mrs. Bernard Lehman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Goldman will leave Wednesday for a two week visit to New Orleans.

Mrs. Arthur Kramer entertained with a luncheon Wednesday at her home for Miss Juanita Kramer.

Miss Louise Rhinehart has returned from Oklahoma City where she spent the holidays.

Mrs. Samuel E. ever entertained the little folks with a birthday party for her son, Samuel Jr., Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hearst spent the holidays in Oklahoma City.

Folz-Lorch Wedding.

Joseph Behr Folz of New York City and Miss Magdalene Elaine Lorch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lorch, were married Tuesday evening in the parlors of a local hotel. Dr. David Lefkowitz officiated.

The parlors were decorated with Southern smilax and baskets of orchid chrysanthemums. The ceremony took place before a screen of greenery banked with bride's roses. The wedding songs, "Calm as the Night," and "Out of the Mist," were sung by Miss Ruth Fabian, accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Cassidy. Mrs. Cassidy also played the wedding march from "Lohengrin."

The bridal party was led by Mrs. Charles D. Turner, matron of honor. She was gowned in green and brocaded silver cloth with side trains of green tulle, and carried a bouquet of orchid chrysanthemums. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Elsa C. Lorch, attended by her twin brother, Lester P. Lorch. Miss Lorch wore a frock of orchid taffeta combined with silver lace, with train of American Beauty tulle. She carried orchid chrysanthemums. The bride entered with her father. She was gowned in white satin with overdress of silver-embroidered tulle, the gown being made with full court train of white satin. Her veil was held with a coronet of Duchess and rose point lace, worn by the bridegroom's mother at her wedding. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses with a shower of valley lilies.

After the ceremony a seven-course dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Folz left immediately for New Orleans, Florida and Cuba. After January 20, they will be at home at the Hamilton, New York City.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sol Folz, Theo. L. Folz of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. A. Keller, Mrs. Bert Keller of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. R. Weil and daughter, Miss Gertrude, of Bowie, Texas, B. W. Rose, Marvin Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Max Schurman of Wills Point, Texas.

Goldberg-Rude Wedding.

Ben E. Goldberg and Miss Fannie Rude were married Sunday evening at a local hotel. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi I. Werne. Mrs. J. Winterman sang the wedding song and the march was played by an orchestra.

The bridesmaids were Misses Rae and Henrietta Goldberg, sisters of the bridegroom and Misses Anna Goldman and Esther Webber. They entered in company with the groomsmen, George Smiley, Max Rude, Irving Webber and Hymie Sewell. The maid of honor, Miss Pearl Rude, sister of the bride, and the best man, Abe Goldberg, brother of the bridegroom, entered alone. Next came the flower girls, little Misses Rae Yonack and Edna Ruth Fair, and the ringbearer, little Miss Harriet Garonsnik, immediately preceded the bride, carrying the ring in the heart of a white lily. Little Miss Gladys Garonsnik followed the bride and served as trainbearer. The mothers of the contracting parties, Mrs. M. Rude and Mrs. H. Goldberg, served as matrons of honor and entered together. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, M. Rude, and the bridegroom was accompanied by his father, H. Goldberg. The bride wore a gown of silver cloth beaded in pearls and sequins made with train of silver lace lined with chiffon. Her veil of Chantilly lace was held with a coronet of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas.

Maurice Joseph, Jr.

Funeral services for Maurice Joseph Jr., 35 years old, who died at a local sanitarium at 9:15 p. m. Saturday, was held from the family residence, 2615 South Boulevard, at 11 a. m. Monday, Dr. David Lefkowitz officiating. Burial was in Emanu-El cemetery.

Mr. Joseph was born Dec. 25, 1885, at Tholey, Rhine Province, Germany, coming to America at the age of 14 years. Shortly after his arrival in this country he came to Dallas and entered the employ of the Rose Manufacturing Company, of which firm he was vice-president and general manager at the time of his death. He went to Birmingham, Ala., for a time, returning to Dallas in 1914.

Mr. Joseph had a wide acquaintance throughout Texas and the entire southwest. He was a member of the Columbian Club and of Temple Emanu-El. On Jan. 17, 1917, he was married to Miss Essie Bromberg of Dallas who survives him. Other surviving relatives are his father and mother and a sister, Mrs. Alma Oppenheim, all of whom reside in Germany; a brother, Richard Joseph, of Dallas, and an uncle, S. E. Rose of Dallas.

Active pallbearers were Ernest Daniel, Walter Liebman, Marcus Leon, Leon A. Fechenbach, A. Bullman and Fred Waldstein. Honorary pallbearers were Sidney Reinhardt, Henry J. Cohn, William Rowe, I. Rosenbaum, Dr. S. M. Freedman, L. L. Henderson, Ben Haas, Adolph Keller, Irvin L. Kramer, A. Lorch, Fred Kelly, Herbert Marcus, Sig Mayer, A. C. Cooper, S. S. Mallinson.

Silver Wedding Anniversary.

On Wednesday evening, December 29th, at 8:30 p. m. at the Parkview Club, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ablon entertained with a reception in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ablon came down the aisle to the strains of Lohengrins wedding march where Dr. Lefkowitz and Rabbi Shwiff gave them their blessings. Following congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ablon followed by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ablon, Esir, Bernard, Myer and David, led the grand march to the dining room where refreshments of cream in the shape of hearts, lilies, roses and bells and initialed "A" cakes were served.

Programs in silver were given out and dancing followed. Punch was served also. Silver candies and silver wrapped cigars were served throughout the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ablon were surprised with a wedding cake from their children, the cake was decorated with a silver horseshoe and silver doves.

The ball room decorations were carried out in silver horse shoes, hearts, and cupids. In the background of the altar could be seen twenty-five lights burning bright through the numeral figures of 25 in silver. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ablon and Mr. Joe Ablon, father of Ben Ablon, received the guests.

Mrs. Ben Ablon wore a gown of silver gray georgette heavily beaded in silver with silver slippers. In her hair she wore a comb in blue and silver.

She wore a corsage of white rose buds with a shower of silver ribbons. Mrs. Morris Ablon wore a gown of gold cloth and over drapings of blue tulle embroidered in gold medallions, the girdle in gold cloth with blue beaded cavashon, slippers of gold. Her corsage of pink buds and sweet peas with shower of rainbow ribbons.

Mrs. H. P. Hayman, sister of Mrs. Ben Ablon, was gowned in pink charmeuse with panels of chantilly lace and silver Parisienne flowers and silver slippers. Her corsage of buds and sweet peas, with shower of Nile green ribbons.

Little Sylvia Rubenstein in costume of pink tulle and silver slippers entertained with fancy dancing. Three hundred and fifty guests enjoyed this beautiful affair. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hayman and Mrs. Jake Hayman of Waco, Mrs. George Ablon and daughter, Esther, of Fort Worth, Mr. Abe Rubinstein of Commerce. The many beautiful gifts received by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ablon denote the high esteem in which they are held by their friends.

To Our Friends.

It is our wish that the strength of true friendship bring you peace and comfort in mind, body and estate and may the coming year broaden your pathway of endeavor and bring you an overbrimming measure of all the good things of life.

MR. AND MRS. BEN ABLON.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ablon entertained with a box party for their father and mother's silver anniversary at the Majestic Theatre. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ablon, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ablon, Esir, Bernard, Meyer and David Ablon and Mrs. Rosa Steele.

Ladies' Congregation of Shaareth Israel.

The social committee of the Auxiliary will entertain on Wednesday, December 8th at 2:30 o'clock at the Assembly room of the synagogue on Park and Aikin streets. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served. Proceeds of the entertainment will go for the benefit of the piano fund.

The Ladies Auxiliary are also making arrangements for a Chanukah celebration on December 12, for the Sabbath School children.

Winters-Raitmen.

F. David Winters and Miss Pearl Raitmen, daughter of Mrs. B. Raitmen, 2311 South Boulevard, were united in marriage Sunday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Rev. Fram and Rev. Werne performed the ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated in green and white, the canopy under which the ceremony was performed being a mass of ferns, roses and tulle. The groom entered with his best man, Mr. Kirchbaum. Miss Pearl Utay was maid of honor and entered with Mandel Skiball. The bride entered with her brother, Sam Raitmen, and was attired in a blue tricot suit, silver hat, and accessories to match. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Jake Yonack sang "Oh, Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. H. Miachelson, sister of the bride. After the ceremony an ice course was served. The punch bowl was set amid an embankment of fern and roses. Numerous telegrams and beautiful gifts testified the popularity of the young

(Continued on Page 13).